

Lauren Kulpa Named to Texas Lawyer's 'On the Rise' List

Dallas Counsel Lauren Kulpa has been selected for Texas Lawyer's “On the Rise” list. The list recognizes lawyers under the age of 40 who have wielded influence in their practice areas in Texas and beyond. These lawyers are innovators, have developed unique practice niches, and have committed themselves to pro bono, charitable and professional volunteer work.

Lauren has nine years' experience representing clients in the retail, defense, finance, tech, and manufacturing industries. Over the past few years, she has earned a reputation as a top-notch counselor, with significant experience conducting workplace investigations.

Lauren is dedicated to her clients. She created several resources for businesses trying to navigate the employment-related challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic. Most significantly, Lauren developed Perkins Coie's COVID-19 Workplace Health Screening App, a web-based screening application containing two questionnaires designed to assist employers in ensuring employee safety in the workplace and reducing the risk of in-office spread of COVID-19,

An active member of the community, Lauren serves on the Board of Meals on Wheels of Tarrant County and as a volunteer with Dallas CASA as a court appointed special advocate. She also advises nonprofits on various employment issues on a pro bono basis.

What's Your Story? Click on the red button to share it with Connections—your internal source for news about the firm and the people who make it thrive.